BY-LAWS

TWIN RIVERS OWNERS ASSOCIATION

The name of the organization shall be TWIN RIVERS OWNERS ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I

OBJECT

1. The purpose for which this non-profit Association is formed is to govern the condominium property which has or will be submitted to the provisions of the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado by the recording of the Declaration and Supplements thereto and Maps and Supplements thereto bearing the name associated with this Association.
2. All present or future owners, tenants, future tenants, or any other person that might use in any manner the facilities of the project located on the property therein described are subject to the regulations set forth in these By-Laws. The mere acquisition or rental of any of the condominium units (hereinafter referred to as "units") of the project or the mere act of occupancy of any of said units will signify that these By-Laws are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with.
3. Any reference to "owner" or "ownership" as used in these By-Laws means and refers to the owner of the condominium unit. "Declarant" as used herein means the named Declarant in the condominium Declaration for TWIN RIVERS OWNERS ASSOCIATION (hereinafter "Declaration").

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP, VOTING, MAJORITY OF OWNERS, QUORUM, PROXIES

1. Membership. Ownership of a condominium unit is required in order to qualify for membership in this Association. Any person on becoming an owner of a condominium unit shall automatically become a member of this Association and be subject to these By-Laws. Such membership shall terminate without any formal Association action whenever such person ceases to own a condominium unit, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with this Association during the period of such ownership and membership in this Association, or others may have against such former owner and member arising out of or in any way connected with ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident thereto. No certificates of stock shall be issued by the Association, but the Board of Managers may, if it so elects, issue one membership card to the owner(s) of a condominium unit. Such membership card shall be surrendered to the Secretary whenever ownership of the condominium unit designated thereon shall terminate.
2. Voting. Voting shall be based upon the percentage of the undivided interest of each unit owner in the general common elements. An owner of the undivided fractional interest in and to a condominium unit shall be entitled to a vote equal to his fractional ownership interest in such unit. Cumulative voting is prohibited.

3. Majority of Unit Owners. As used in these By-Laws the term "majority of unit owners" shall mean those owners of more than fifty per cent (50%) of the undivided ownership of the general common elements.

4. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of those owners of thirty-three and one-third percent (33-1/3%) of the undivided ownership of the general common elements shall constitute a quorum. An affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners present, either in person or by proxy, shall be required to transact business.

5. Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. Proxies must be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of each meeting.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION

1. Association Responsibilities. The owners of the units will constitute the Association of Unit Owners, hereinafter referred to as "Association", who will have the responsibility of administering the project through a Board of Managers.

2. Place of Meeting. Meetings of the Association shall be held at such place within the State of Colorado as the Board of Managers may determine.

3. Annual Meetings. The first meeting of the Association shall be held within ninety-days following the giving of notice by the Declarant that eighty-five per cent of the condominium units in the entire condominium project have been sold. Thereafter, the annual meetings of the Association shall be held on the first Saturday of December of each succeeding year. At such meetings there shall be elected by ballot of the owners a Board of Managers in accordance with the requirements of paragraph 4 of Article IV of these By-Laws. The owners may also transact such other business of the Association as may properly come before them.

4. Special Meetings. It shall be the duty of the President to call a special meeting of the owners as directed by resolution of the Board of Managers or upon a petition signed by at least one-third of the owners. The notice of any special meeting shall state the time and place of such meeting and the purpose thereof. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice unless by consent of two thirds of the owners present, either in person or by proxy. Any such meeting shall be held within thirty (30) days after receipt by the President of such resolution or petition.

5. Notice of Meetings. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to mail a notice of each annual or special meeting, stating the purpose thereof as well as the time and place where it is to be held, to each owner of record, at least ten (10) but not more than thirty (30) days prior to such meeting. The mailing of a notice in the manner provided in this paragraph shall be considered notice served and the Certificate of the Secretary that such notice was duly given shall be prima facia evidence

6. Adjourned Meeting. If any meeting of owners cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the owners who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than forty-eight hours from the time the original meeting was called.

7. Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of the owners of units shall be as follows:

- a) Roll Call and Certifying Proxies.
- b) Proof of notice of meeting or waiver of notice.
- c) Reading of minutes of preceding meetings.
- d) Reports of officers.
- e) Reports of committees.
- f) Election of managers.
- g) Unfinished business.
- h) New Business.
- i) Adjournment.

8. Performance of Functions by Declarant. The rights, duties and functions of the Board shall, at the Declarant's option, be exercised by the Declarant by and through those persons named as Directors in the Articles of Incorporation and as is provided in Article 5.3 of the Declaration.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF MANAGERS

1. Number and Qualifications. Consistent with the relevant provisions of the Declaration, the Declarant shall exercise the rights, duties and functions of the Board as provided therein by and through the persons named in the Articles of Incorporation as the Directors until the first meeting of the members of the Association. At the first meeting there shall be elected any three members of the Association to the Board who shall thereafter govern the affairs of this Association until their successors have been duly elected and qualified.

2. Powers and Duties. The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association and for the operation and maintenance of a first class residential condominium project. The Board of Managers may do all such acts and things as are not by law or by these By-Laws or by the Condominium Declaration directed to be exercised and done by the owners of the condominium units:

- a) To administer and enforce the covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, uses, limitations, obligations and all other provisions set forth in the Declaration submitting the property to the provisions of the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado and the By-Laws of the Association and supplements and amendments thereto.

25 Jan 08: This document has been converted from the true document found in Grand County records Book 265, Pages 105-124, Recorded 14 Sep 1979, Reception No. 166741. If there is any discrepancy between this document and the true document found in Grand County records, the document in Grand County records is considered the controlling document.

- b) To establish, make and enforce compliance with such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the operation, use and occupancy of this condominium project with the right to amend same from time to time. A copy of such rules and regulations shall be delivered or mailed to each member promptly upon the adoption thereof.
- c) To incur such costs and expenses as may be necessary to keep in good order, condition and repair all of the general and limited common elements and all items of personal property, if any, used in the enjoyment of the entire premises.
- d) To insure and keep insured all of the insurable general common elements of the property in an amount equal to their maximum replacement value as is provided in the Declaration. To insure and keep insured all of the common fixtures, common equipment, and common personal property acquired by the Association for the benefit of the Association and the owners of the condominium units and their first mortgages. Further, to obtain and maintain insurance as provided in the Declaration.
- e) To prepare a budget for the condominium at least annually, in order to determine the amount of the common assessments payable by the unit owners to meet the common expenses of the condominium project, and allocate and assess such common charges among the unit owners as provided in Article 6 of the Declaration, and by majority vote of the Board to adjust, decrease or increase the amount of the quarterly or monthly assessments, and remit or return any excess of assessments over expenses, working capital, sinking funds, reserve for deferred maintenance and for replacement to the owners at the end of each operating year. To levy and collect special assessments whenever in the opinion of the Board it is necessary to do so in order meet increased operating or maintenance expenses or costs, or additional capital expenses, or because of emergencies.
- f) To collect delinquent assessments by suit or otherwise and to enjoin or seek damages from an owner as is provided in the Declaration and these By-Laws. To enforce a late charge of not more than $10.00 per month and to collect interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum in connection with assessments remaining unpaid more than twenty (20) days from due date for payment thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees incurred. The Board shall have the duty, right, power and authority to prohibit use of a condominium unit by an owner, lessee, sublessee, tenant or guest in the event that any assessment made remains unpaid more than thirty (30) days from the due date for payment thereof.
- g) To protect and defend in the name of the Association any part or all of the condominium project from loss and damage by suit or otherwise.
- h) To borrow funds in order to pay for any expenditure or outlay required pursuant to the authority granted by the provisions of the recorded Declaration and these By-Laws, and to execute all such instruments evidencing such indebtedness as the Board may deem necessary and give security therefor. Such indebtedness shall be the several obligation of all owners in the same proportion as provided in Article 6, of the Declaration. The persons who shall be authorized to execute promissory notes and securing instruments shall be the President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary.

- i) To enter into contracts to carry out their duties and powers.
- j) To establish a bank account or accounts for the common treasury and for all separate funds which are required or may be deemed advisable.
- k) To make repairs, additions, alterations and improvements to the general common elements consistent with managing the condominium project in a first-class manner and consistent with the best interests of the unit owners.
- l) To keep and maintain full and accurate books and records showing all of the receipts, expenses or disbursements and to permit examination thereof at any reasonable time by each of the owners.
- m) To prepare and deliver annually to each owner a consolidated statement showing receipts, expenses or disbursements since the last such statement.
- n) To meet at least semi-annually and, if a Managing Agent is employed, an employee of the Managing Agent may be in attendance, upon invitation of the Board.
- o) In general, to carry on the administration of this Association and to do all of those things necessary and reasonable in order to carry out the governing and the operation of this condominium property.
- p) To manage the use of all parking areas under the control of the Association, open spaces, common areas and other property in common use.
- q) To employ for the Association a managing agent to exercise those duties and powers granted to it by the Board, but not those powers which the Board, by law, may not delegate.
- r) To designate and remove personnel necessary for the operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements.

3. No Waiver of Rights. The omission or failure of the Association or any condominium unit owner to enforce the covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, uses, limitations, obligations or other provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall not constitute or be deemed a waiver, modification or release thereof, and the Board of Directors or the Managing Agent shall have the right to enforce the same thereafter.

4. Election and Term of Office. At the first meeting of the Association the term of office of one Director shall be fixed for three (3) years; the term of office of one Director shall be fixed for two (2) years; and the term of office of one Director shall be fixed at one (1) year. At the expiration of the initial term of office of each respective Director, his successor shall be elected to serve a term of three (3) years. Except as is otherwise provided by these By-Laws, the Directors shall hold office until their successors have been elected and hold their first meeting.

5. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board caused by any reason other than the removal of a Director by a vote of the Association shall be filled by vote of the majority of the remaining Directors, even though they may constitute less than a quorum; and each person so elected shall be a Director until his successor is elected.

6. Removal of Directors. Subject to the relevant provisions of the Declaration, at any regular or special meeting duly called, any one or more of the Directors may be removed with or without cause by a majority of the owners, a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any Director whose removal has been proposed by the owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting prior to voting thereon.

7. Organization Meeting. The first meeting of a newly elected Board following each annual meeting of the unit owners shall be held within ten days thereafter at such place as shall be fixed by the Directors at the meeting at which such Directors were elected, and no notice shall be necessary to the newly elected Directors in order legally to constitute such meeting, providing a majority of the whole Board shall be present.

8. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board may be held at such time and place as shall be determined, from time to time, by a majority of the Directors, but at least two such meetings shall be held during each calendar year. Notice of regular meetings of the Board shall be given to each Director, personally or by mail, telephone, or telegraph at least seven days prior to the day named for such meeting.

9. Special Meeting. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President on three days' notice to each Director, given personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Board shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two or more Directors.

10. Waiver of Notice. Before or at any meeting of the Board, any Director may, in writing, waive notice of such meeting and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice. Attendance by a Director at any meeting of the Board shall be a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the Directors are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

11. Board of Directors' Quorum. At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board. If, at any meeting of the Board there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting, any Business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

12. Fidelity Bonds. The Board may require that all officers and employees of the Association and the Managing Agent who handle or are responsible for Association funds shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premiums on such bonds shall be a common expense.

owners as set forth in the Declaration may be supplemented by the following provisions:

Accounts. The funds and expenditures of the unit owners by and through the Association shall be credited and charged to accounts under the following classifications as shall be appropriate, all of which expenditures shall be common expenses.

- a) Current expense, which shall include all funds and expenditures within the year for which the funds are budgeted, including a reasonable allowance for contingencies and working funds, except expenditures chargeable to reserves or to additional improvements.
- b) Reserve for deferred maintenance, which shall include funds for maintenance items which occur less frequently than annually.
- c) Reserve for replacement, which shall include funds for repair or replacement required because of damage, wear or obsolescence.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

1. Designation. The officers of the Association shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board, and such assistant officers as the Board shall, from time to time, elect. Such officers need not be members of the Board, but each shall be an owner of a condominium unit in this condominium project, or the Declarant or its representative(s). The office of President and Treasurer may be held by the same person, and the office of Vice President and Secretary may be held by the same person.
2. Election of Officers. The officers of the Association shall be elected annually by the Board at the organization meeting of each new Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board.
3. Removal of Officers. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his successor elected at any regular meeting of the Board, or any special meeting of the Board called for such purpose.
4. President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association. He shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board. He shall have all of the general powers and duties which are usually vested in the office of president of an association, including, but not limited to, the power to appoint committees from among the owners from time to time as he may in his discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Association or as may be established by the Board or by the members of the Association at any regular or special meetings.
5. Vice President. The Vice President shall have all the powers and authority and perform all the functions and duties of the President, in the absence of the President, or his inability for any reason to exercise such powers and functions or perform such duties.
6. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep all the minutes of the meeting of the Board and the minutes of all meetings of the Association; he shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board may direct; and he shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary.

The Secretary shall compile and keep up to date at the principal office of the Association a complete list of members and their registered addresses as shown on the records of the Association. Such list shall also show opposite each member's name the number or other appropriate designation of the unit owner by such member, the undivided interest in the general common elements. Such list shall be open to inspection by members and other persons lawfully entitled to inspect the same at reasonable times during regular business hours. In addition, a list of all mortgagees of units shall be maintained. The records referred to in this subsection may be maintained by the Managing Agent.

7. Treasurer. The treasurer shall have the responsibility for Association funds and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Association; provided, however, that the day to day responsibilities for booking and collecting and disbursing funds shall be delegated to a paid employee of the Association or to a Managing Agent. The Treasurer's responsibility shall be to review the accounts not less often than quarter-annually. The Treasurer may also serve as the Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS AND MANAGING AGENT

1. Indemnification. The Association shall indemnify every Director and officer, their respective successors, personal representatives and heirs, against all loss, costs and expenses, including counsel fees, reasonable incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of the Association, except as to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence or willful misconduct. In the event of a settlement, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters covered by the settlement as to which the Association is advised by counsel that the person to be indemnified has not been guilty of gross negligence or will-full misconduct in the performance of his duty as such Director or officer in relation to the matter involved. The foregoing rights shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such Director or officer may be entitled. All liability, loss, damage, cost and expense incurred or suffered by the Association by reason or arising out of or in connection with the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the Association as common expenses; provided, however, that nothing in this Article VII contained shall be deemed to obligate the Association to indemnify any member or owner of a condominium unit who is or has been Director or officer of the Association with respect to any duties or obligations assumed or liabilities incurred by him as an owner of a condominium unit under and by virtue of the Declaration.

2. Other. Contracts or other commitments made by the Board of Directors or officers shall be made as agent for the unit owners, and they shall have no personal responsibility on any such contract or commitment (except as unit owners), and the liability of any unit owner on any such contract or commitment shall be limited to such proportionate share of the total liability thereof as provided in Article of the Declaration, except that any losses incurred because of an inability to collect such proportionate amount of the total liability owed by an owner shall be shared proportionately by the owners.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENTS

1. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law.
2. These By-Laws may be amended by a majority of the unit owners present in person or by proxy at a duly constituted meeting of the members for such purpose; provided, however, that no amendment shall conflict with or minimize the intended effect of the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or the Declaration.

ARTICLE IX

MORTGAGES

1. Notice to Association. An owner who mortgages his unit shall notify the Association through the Managing Agent, if any, or the Association Secretary, giving the name and address of his mortgagee. The Association shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgagees of Units".
2. Notice of Unpaid Common Assessments. The Association, whenever so requested in writing by a mortgagee of a condominium unit, shall promptly report any then unpaid common assessments due from, or any other default by, the owner of a mortgaged unit.
3. Notice of Default. When giving notice to a unit owner of a default in paying common assessments or other default, the Board shall send a copy of such notice to each holder of a mortgage covering such condominium unit whose name and address has theretofore been furnished to the Board and to the Lessor.
4. Examination of Books. Each unit owner and their mortgagee, if applicable may inspect the records of receipts and expenditures of the Association pursuant to section 38-33-107 of the Colorado Revised Statutes at convenient weekday business hours and, upon ten days notice to the manager or Board of Directors and payment of a $50 fee, any unit owner shall be furnished a statement of his account setting forth the amount of any unpaid assessments or other charges due and owing from such owner.

ARTICLE X

EVIDENCE OF OWNERSHIP, REGISTRATION OF MAILING ADDRESS AND DESIGNATION OF VOTING REPRESENTATIVE

1. Proof of Ownership. Any person acquiring an interest in a condominium unit shall furnish to the Board a copy of the recorded instrument vesting that person with an interest in the condominium unit. The copy furnished to the Association shall be maintained in the files of the Association.

2. Registration of Mailing Address. The owners or several owners of each condominium unit shall have one and the same registered mailing address to be used by the Association for mailing of monthly statements, notices, demands and all other communications, and such registered address shall be the only mailing address of a person or persons, firm, corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity or any combination thereof to be used by the Association. Such registered address of a condominium unit owner or owners shall be furnished by such owners to the Managing Agent or Board within fifteen days after transfer of title, or after a change of address, and such registration shall be in writing and signed by all of the owners of the condominium unit or by such persons as are authorized by law to represent the interest of (all of) the owners thereof.

3. Designation of Voting Representative - Proxy. If the title to a condominium unit is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the record title thereto. If the title to a condominium unit is held by more than one person or by a firm, corporation, partnership, association or other legal entity, or any combination thereof, such owners shall execute a proxy appointing and authorizing one person or alternate persons to attend all annual and special meetings of members and thereat to cast whatever vote the owner himself might cast if he were personally present. Such proxy shall be effective and remain in force unless voluntarily revoked, amended or sooner terminated by operation of law; provided, however, that within thirty days after such revocation, amendment or termination, the owner shall reappoint and authorize one person or alternate persons to attend all annual and special meetings as provided by this Section 3.

The requirements herein contained in this Article X shall be first met before an owner of a condominium unit shall be deemed in good standing and entitled to vote at any annual or special meeting of members.

ARTICLE XI

OBLIGATIONS OF THE OWNERS

1. Assessments. All owners shall be obligated to pay the monthly or quarterly assessments imposed by the Association to meet the common expenses and to maintain the reserves as provided in the Declaration. Assessments shall be due in advance. A member shall be deemed in good standing and entitled to vote at any annual or at a special meeting of members within the meaning of these By-Laws, if, and only if, he shall have fully paid all assessments made or levied against him and the condominium unit owned by him.

2. Notice of Lien or Suit. An owner shall give notice to the Association of every lien or encumbrance upon his condominium unit, other than for taxes and special assessments, and notice of every suit or other proceeding which may effect the title to his condominium unit, and such notice shall be given in writing within five days after the owner has knowledge thereof.

3. Mechanic's Lien. Each owner agrees to indemnify and to hold each of the other owners and the Lessor harmless from any and all claims of mechanic's lien filed against other condominium units and the appurtenant general common elements for labor, materials, services or other products incorporated in the owner's condominium unit. In the event such a lien is commenced, then within ten days thereafter such owner shall be required to deposit with the Association cash or negotiable securities equal to one and one-half of the amount of such claim plus interest for one year together with a sum equal to ten percent of the amount of such claim, but not less than One Hundred Fifty Dollars, which latter sum may be used by the Association for any costs and expenses incurred, including attorney's fees incurred for legal advice and counsel. Except as is otherwise provided, such sum or securities shall be held by the Association pending final adjudication or settlement of the claim or litigation. Disbursement of such funds or proceeds shall be made by the Association to insure payment of or on account of such final judgment or settlement. Any deficiency, including attorney's fees incurred by the Association, shall be paid forthwith by the subject owner, and his failure to so pay thereof shall be a debt of the owner and a lien against his condominium unit which may be foreclosed as is provided in the Declaration. All advancements, payments, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Association shall be forthwith reimbursed to it by such owner(s), and the owner shall be liable to the Association for the payment of interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum on all such sums paid or incurred by the Association. The provisions in this Section 3 shall supplement the relevant provisions of the Declaration.

4. Maintenance and Repair.

- a) Every owner must perform promptly, at his own expenses, all maintenance and repair work within his own unit which, if omitted, would affect the appearance of the aesthetic integrity of part or all of the condominium project.
- b) All the repairs of internal installations of the unit such as water, light, gas, power, sewage, telephone, sanitary installations, doors, windows, electrical fixtures and all other accessories, equipment and fixtures shall be at the owner's expense.
- c) An owner shall be obligated to reimburse the Association promptly upon receipt of its statement for any expenditures incurred by it in repairing or replacing any general or limited common element damaged by his negligence or by the negligence of his tenants or agents or guests.

5. General.

- a) Each owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of the recorded Declaration and these By-Laws and amendments thereto.
- b) Each owner shall always endeavor to observe and promote the cooperative purposes for the accomplishment of which this condominium project was built.

6. Uses of Units - Internal Changes.

- a) All units shall be utilized only for the purposes as is provided in the Declaration.
- b) An owner shall not make structural modifications or alterations to his unit or installations located therein without the written approval of the Board and the Lessor. The Board and the Lessor shall be notified in writing of the intended modifications through the Managing Agent or, if no Managing Agent is employed, then through the President of the Board. The Association shall have the obligation to answer an owner's request within thirty days after such notice, and failure to do so within such time shall mean that there is no objection to the proposed modifications or alterations.

7. Use of General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. Each owner may use the general common elements, the limited common elements, sidewalks, pathways, roads and streets and other common elements located within the entire condominium project in accordance with the purpose for which they were intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other owners, and subject to the rules and regulations contained in these By-Laws and established by the Board as is provided in Section 9 of this Article.
8. Right of Entry.
 - a) An owner shall and does grant the right of entry to the Managing Agent or to any other person authorized by the Board in case of an emergency originating in or threatening his unit, whether the owner is present at the time or not.
 - b) An owner shall permit other owners, or their representatives, to enter his unit for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical, electrical or utility services which, if not performed, would affect the use of other units, provided that requests for entry are made in advance and that such entry is at a time convenient to the owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate.
9. Rules and Regulations Governing Common Elements.
 - a) The initial rules and regulations, which shall be effective until amended or supplemented by the Board, are annexed hereto and made a part hereof as Schedule A.
 - b) The Board reserves the power to establish, make and enforce compliance with such additional rules and regulations as may be necessary for the operation, use and occupancy of this condominium project with the right to amend same from time to time. Copies of such rules and regulations shall be furnished to each unit owner prior to the date when the same shall become effective.
10. Destruction. Each owner, upon becoming an owner of a condominium unit, thereby grants his power of attorney in favor of the Association, irrevocably appointing the Association his attorney-in-fact to deal with the owner's condominium unit upon its damage or destruction, as is provided in the Declaration.

ARTICLE XII

ABATEMENT AND ENJOINMENT OF VIOLATIONS BY UNIT OWNERS

Abatement and Enjoinment. The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the board, or the breach of any By-Laws, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board or the Managing Agent the right, in addition to any other rights set forth therein, (i) to enter the unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any person, structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions thereof, and the Board or Managing Agent shall not be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass, and to expel, remove and put out, using such force as may be necessary in so doing, without being liable to prosecution or in damages therefor; (ii) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any breach.

ARTICLE XIII

COMMITTEES

1. Designation. The Board may, but shall not be required to, appoint an executive committee, and it may designate and create standing committees and appoint persons to all such committees.
2. Executive Committee. The executive committee shall consist of two persons who are members and who shall be appointed by the Board from the members of the Board. One member shall be the President. The executive committee shall supervise the affairs of the Association and shall regulate its internal economy, approve expenditures and commitments, act and carry out the established policies of the Association and report to the Directors at each meeting of the Board. The executive committee may hold regular meetings, monthly or as it may in its discretion determine. Special meetings may be called at any time by the chairman of the committee or by any of its members, either by telephone, telegraph, mail or personally, and a special meeting may be held by telephone.
3. Nominating Committee. Before each annual meeting, the Board may appoint a committee of three members who shall nominate candidates for the Board. The names of the candidates shall be submitted on or before thirty (30) days before the election. Members may submit names of candidates other than those submitted by the nominating committee prior or at the annual meeting of the Board.
4. Vacancies. A vacancy in any committee shall be filled by the President until the next meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE XIV

ASSOCIATION - NOT FOR PROFIT

Association - Not For Profit. This Association is not organized for profit. No member, member of the Board, officer or person from whom the Association may receive any property or funds shall receive or shall be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation thereof, and in no event shall any part of the funds or assets of the Association be paid as salary or compensation to, or distributed to, or inure to the benefit of any member of the Board, officer or member; provided, however, always (i) that reasonable compensation may be paid to any member, Director or officer while acting as an agent or employee of the Association, for services rendered in effecting one or more of the purposes of the Association, and (ii) that any member, Director or officer may, from time to time, be reimbursed for his actual and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the affairs of the Association. The provisions herein are not applicable to the Managing Agent who shall perform its manager's duties and functions according to written agreement for the compensation stated therein.

ARTICLE XV

MORTGAGEES AS PROXIES

Mortgagees as Proxies. Condominium unit owners shall have the right to irrevocably constitute and appoint the beneficiary of a trust deed, mortgage or other instrument which encumbers the owner's leasehold interest their true and lawful attorney to vote their unit membership in this Association at any and all meetings of the Association and to vest in such beneficiary or his nominee any and all rights, privileges and powers that they have as unit owners under the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of this Association or by virtue of the recorded Declaration. Such proxy shall become effective upon the filing of a notice by the beneficiary with the Secretary of the Association at such time or times as the beneficiary shall deem its security in jeopardy by reason of the failure, neglect or refusal of the Association, the Managing Agent or the unit owners to carry out their duties as set forth in the Declaration. A release of the beneficiary's encumbrance shall operate to revoke such proxy. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve condominium unit owners, as mortgagors, of their duties and obligations as condominium unit owners or to impose upon the beneficiary of the encumbrance the duties and obligations of a unit owner.

ARTICLE XVI

PROHIBITION

The Association shall have no right or authority to, and is prohibited from engaging in, the sale, lease or rental of a condominium unit or any part thereof; provided, however, that this prohibition shall not affect the right and duty of the Association to enforce its right to a lien for the non-payment of an Association assessment against a condominium unit and the right to sell, lease or dispose of such condominium unit as provided in the Declaration.

The undersigned Secretary of this Association does hereby certify that the above and foregoing By-Laws and Rules and Regulations were duly adopted by the Directors as the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of said Association on this 14th day of September 1979.

SCHEDULE A

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Any common sidewalks, driveways, entrances and passageways shall not be obstructed or used by any unit owner for any other purpose than ingress and egress from the units.
2. Except as to the areas termed limited common elements, no articles shall be placed on or in any of the general common elements except for those articles of personal property which are the common property of all of the unit owners.
3. No vehicle belonging to or under the control of a unit owner or a member of the family or a guest, tenant, lessee or employees of a unit owner shall be parked in such manner as to impede or prevent ready access to any part of the project. Vehicles shall be parked within designated parking areas. Any traffic flow markings and signs regulating traffic on the premises shall be strictly observed.
4. No owner, resident or lessee shall install wiring for electrical or telephone installation or for any other purpose, nor shall any television or radio antennae, machines or air conditioning units be installed on the exterior of the project, including any part of the balcony, or that protrude through the walls or the roof of the condominium improvements except as may be expressly authorized by the Association.
5. Owners and occupants shall exercise reasonable care to avoid making or permitting to be made loud, disturbing or objectionable noises, and in using or playing or permitting to be used or played musical instruments, radios, phonographs, television sets, amplifiers and any other instruments or devices in such manner as may disturb or tend to disturb owners, tenants or occupants of other units.
6. Disposition of garbage and trash shall be only by the use of garbage disposal units or by use of common trash and garbage facilities.
7. The Association assumes no liability for nor shall it be liable for any loss or damage to articles left or stored in any common or other area.
8. Any damage to the general common elements or common personal property caused by the owner or a child or children of a unit owner or their guests or the guests of a unit owner shall be repaired at the expense of that unit owner.
9. The resident manager, the managing agent or the Board of Directors shall retain a passkey to each unit. No owner shall alter any lock or install a new lock on any door leading into the unit without prior consent, and, if such consent is given, the owner shall provide a key for the managing agent's or the Board of Directors' use.
10. The balconies and terraces, decks or patios shall be used only for the purposes intended and shall not be used for hanging garments or other articles or for cleaning rugs, household articles or other items. No rugs or other materials shall be dusted from windows, balconies, decks or patios by beating or shaking. Outdoor cooking on such areas shall be permitted only if such cooking can be accomplished without smoke.

11. No cats, dogs or other animal or bird or reptile (hereinafter for brevity termed "animal") shall be kept, maintained or harbored on any part of the condominium property and unit unless the same in each instance is expressly permitted in writing by the managing agent, resident manager or by the Board of Directors. Where such written permission is granted, such permission is revocable if the animal becomes obnoxious to other owners, in which event the owner or person having control of the animal shall be given a written notice to correct the problem, or if not corrected, the owner, upon written notice, will be required to remove the animal from the project and unit. The written notices provided for herein shall be issued by the managing agent or resident manager or by one or more of the members of the Board of Directors.
12. Fireworks of any kind, whether explosive or non-explosive, shall not be stored, carried or brought or permitted on any part of this project:, including within a unit, nor shall any fireworks be ignited, displayed or exploded on any part of the project.
13. Persons under the age of 14 years of age shall not be permitted to use the saunas unless accompanied by an adult. The owners, their guests and all other persons using the saunas shall abide by the rules as posted in the sauna areas. Under no circumstances shall glass containers, of any kind, be permitted in the sauna room.
14. The sauna room shall be used (only) by the owners, the members of their families and their guests.
15. Parking spaces may not be used for storage of boats and other recreational equipment belonging to an owner.
